9. Probation Update: Jazmine Barkley from Probation shared about the need for visitation supervisors. Recently the Count has asked for probation to step in to do the visitation for family matters when parents need supervised visit with their children. They are looking for support around identifying someone that might already be trained or willing to become training in supervised visits, non-probation or non-child welfare cases. Wild Iris use to do it but it is her understanding that they no longer have the funding or personnel to do those visitations right now. The Judicial Counsel offers a 3 days virtual training, the cost is unknown at this time. 11. Resource Family and Foster Youth Services Executive Advisory Committee Updates: Michelle share that they have a good community of Resource Families. Courtney Walsh provided an update regarding Foster Youth Services. The CAPC serves as the Executive Advisory Committee (EAC) for the FYSC program. The FYSCP EAC could potentially join Mono County's Children's System of Care (CSOC) since the EAC is not subject to brown act and has a large representations of agencies that work directly with foster youth. Following the release of the FYSCP funds, AB 130 will be addition more funds in the form of direct serves over the next two years. The deadline was prior to the CAPC meeting so it was brought to the CSOC group. MCOE moved forward with the LOI. This will be an additional $75,000 for foster youth and is meant to support any foster youth in the K-12 system. In the 2020-21 fiscal year the FYSC program went into a 2-year contract with Resilient Colorado to provider Trauma Informed Care Training to our schools and any youth serving agency in Mono County. There have been 4 trainings and one was in the 2021-2022 fiscal year with Mono County Public Health and 20 people attended the training. There are more trainings to come from this. In addition, the FYSPC funded 5 people to become Strengthening Families Trainers and will be starting the first of a two-part series at the end of September.
