

Wildfire Shelter Virtual Training Fair

American Red Cross
Central California Region

Serve your community by becoming a Red Cross Shelter Volunteer!

A record-breaking wildfire season is expected this year. You can help the people in your community by serving as a Red Cross volunteer shelter worker when a disaster strikes. Join our Virtual Training Fair so you can answer the call when your community needs it most.

We aspire to turn compassion into action so that all people affected by disaster in your community will receive care, shelter, and hope.

Our shelter workers are highly trained, but you can complete most of the training in our 3-hour virtual session. The remaining courses can be completed online, at your leisure.
